

Lancaster County Early Intervention Parent Advisory Committee

You are Invited

Please join us! The Lancaster County Early Intervention Parent Advisory Committee welcomes all parents to join our discussions. Our committee provides valuable input which is used to develop program policy, guidelines, and parent trainings. The Early Intervention Program values parent experiences, ideas and input and we would like to hear from you.

If you are interested in participating, please call your Support Coordinator or:

Hillary Buckwalter,
Parent Advisory Committee Coordinator
